

LEWISBURG CHRONICLE AND WEST BRANCH FARMER

Foreign News.

ARRIVAL OF STEAMER EUROPA.

New York, Oct. 11.—A. M.

The royal mail steamer Europa, arrived here after nine o'clock this morning. She brings three days later advices than those by the Atlantic.

The political news of the past week is without much general interest.

France.

The President of the French Republic, it seems, is not yet done holiday-making. He has been reviewing the troops on the plain of Sartoria, at Versailles. This is said to be in honor of the Napoléon ambassador. It was a splendid military display.

Spain.

Advices from Madrid date to the 20th. They contradict the statement that Lord Howden had reluctantly refused to dine at the French Ambassador's. A second invitation not having been sent his Lordship is the reason why he did not accept the first.

A diligence from Barcelona to Valencia had fallen over a precipice near Naples, by which fourteen passengers, the guard, position, and horses were killed.

Germany.

Frankfort, Sept. 21.—The Diet.—The Federal Council has declared that the refusal to vote the taxes in Hesse Cassel is contrary to the federal compact, and has accordingly summoned the government to enfract their collection and to overcome any resistance that may be opposed to it by a constitutional method. In case it is unsuccessful, then the governments of Hanover and Württemberg, or, according to other accounts, Hanover, Bavaria and Schleswigholstein, are charged to enter Hesse in aid of the Elector, and to enforce the stage of siege according to the ordinance of the 7th September. All employees of the Court of the Elector, have received orders to repair, before the 15th of October, to Wittenbad.

Yesterday, at Frankfort, the Permanent Commissioner of the States resolved to bring to trial Major Gen'l Schubert and Sturmmaster Marckwardt, for violating the constitution in acting in the execution of the ordinance of the 7th Sept.

Berlin, Sept.—It is reported that the Prussian government proposes to settle the complications of Hesse Cassel by means of an arbitration tribunal, consisting of three members of the Permanent Commission of the State.

Prussia.

Sept. 24.—A court of assises, at Wittenbad, has condemned the advocate M. Von Schell for the loss of the National Cora. The deprivation of his office, a fine of $100, the law expenses, and finally to the penalty of death, for having exonerated his fellow-citizens to take up arms against the royal authority, and committing high treason at Born Cassel.

Denmark.

Holstine Kiel, Sept. 29.—The finance committee of the assembly hold long sittings every day, and, in order to defray the State expenses, they have resolved to propose a forced loan on property. The Assembly is to consider this next week, and adjourn.

Mecklenburg—Schwesin, September 21, 1850.—The government having been informed of the projected meeting of the deputies, of left and right, have issued orders to prohibit the deputies assembling to deliberate in their quality of national representatives. Magistrates have announced their intention of obeying these orders, and it is feared a serious collision will take place on Tuesday if the members persist. The municipal council of Schwesin have adopted a resolution calling on the magistrates not to disturb the deputies in the exercise of their functions, but to act in support of the constitution.

The Markets.

Liverpool Cotton Market.—The cotton trade early in the week was active, but closed with dullness this afternoon. The accounts by the America, corroborative of those brought by the Atlantic, caused the market to advance fully 4d., but the speculative demand having fallen off, prices have receded, and quotations this week are nearly similar to those last quoted.

It is stated 800,000 baskets peaches have been sold in New York the present season. On Friday the number of baskets was stated to be 63,000, and on Saturday 51,000. Besides what came in basket's large quantities are hawked about in wagons. The Hightown Record states that the peach-grower in that vicinity, finding that their fruit will not sell in New York at remunerating prices have turned their attention to drying it. Reed & Co. have now a kiln in operation in that village, capable of drying 60 bushels per day.

Suicide.—We have been informed that an old man, about one hundred years of age, residing in Fairfield, in this county, whose name is Moyer, committed suicide a few days since by hanging himself with a handkerchief. He was insane at the time. He was much grieved that Providence had permitted him to live so long, and thought it was wrong and was very much troubled about the designs of Providence in thus prolonging his life. He solved the mystery by terminating it, at an age reached by very few.—Herkimer County Cour

The population of Milwaukee is set down at 23,025. In the year 1834, she had one white inhabitant.

Colonel B. F. Sprague, of Eagle Prairie, has raised a cucumber five feet and eleven inches long.
